

Marideth Joy Sandler

Sandler Trade LLC
3950 Langley Court, NW, Suite E625
Washington, DC 20016, United States
Telephone: 202-492-7473

Current position:

CEO, International Trade Advisor, Sandler Trade LLC, 2010 to present.

Selected past positions:

Executive Director, U.S. Generalized System of Preferences (GSP), Executive Office of the President, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, 2005-2010.

Director for Southeast Asia and Pacific Islands Affairs; Assistant Director for Steel Policy; ExecSec to USTR Ambassador Robert B. Zoellick; Executive Office of the President, Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, 2003-2005.

Environmental and Editorial Consultant, The World Bank, Washington, DC, 2003.

Associate Director for International Policy, Telecommunications and Transportation, Office of Alaska Governor Tony Knowles, Washington, DC, 1995-2002.

Education and Special Training:

Mid-Career Master in Public Administration (with Honors), 1995, Harvard University, Kennedy School of Government.

Master in Urban and Regional Planning, 1980, University of Colorado at Denver.

B.A. in anthropology and sociology, 1973, Cornell University.

Accredited Microfinance Trainer (with Distinction), 2009, African Development Bank, Asian Development Bank Institute, the World Bank Tokyo Development Learning Center, and the UN Capital Development Fund.

Certificate of Completion and Lecturer, Boulder Institute of Microfinance, ILO International Training Center, 2009